Index

Administration, Labor's Interest in. Major-General William Crozier, 153–158.
American Federation of Labor: piece-work payment, 158; scientific research, adoption of resolutions on, 132; fullest service by labor advocated, 57; necessity for shifting of labor, 16; shop committees, 9.
Appleton, W. A. A Labor Attitude toward Production—an English Point of View, 76–78.
Arbitration, 24–25.
Ardzrooni, Leon. The Philosophy of the Restriction of Output, 70–75.

Capital, 8.
Cheney, E. P., 46.
Collective bargaining: agreements, 48; is it incentive to production, 42; results of, in industry, 45; piece work, 46; production methods, 45; strikes, decrease in, 47.
Collective Bargaining and Its Effect on Production. William M. Leiserson, 40–49.
Competition: coöperation and, 3; for profit, 1; in service, 1.
Conciliation and mediation, 24.
Cooke, Morris Llewellyn. Editor's Preface, vii–ix; 50, 53.
Coöperation; basis of, 36; competition and, 3; effect of, 38; worker's fitness to manage, 37.
Cornick, R. L. Organizing the Shop for Production, 36–39.
Crooks, Sir William, 131.
Crozier, Major-General William, Labor's Interest in Administration, 153–158.

Davenport, H. J., 75.
Dennison, Henry S. Production and Profits, 159–162.
Drinker, C. K., 112.
Drinker, K. R., 112.
Drury, Horace B. Labor and Production, 79–88.

Edison, Thomas A., 76, 159.
Editor's Preface. Morris Llewellyn Cooke, vii–ix.
Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 163.
Employer, relations between employe and, 12.
Engineer, Every Worker an. Henry Wood Shelton, 1–6.
Erskine, Lillian. Women in Productive Industry, 93–97.
Extravagance, price of, 61.

Fisher, Irving, 28, 72.
Ford, Henry, 159.
Foreman, The—His Training and Education. Benjamin E. Mallary, 121–126.
Foremen's School: the instructor, 125; instruction methods, 125; organization, 123; course of study, 124.
Frayne, Hugh. Will Greater Production Cure Social and Industrial Unrest, 56–63; 110.
Freminville, Charles de. The Manager's Responsibility for Production, 163–169.
Frey, John P. Labor's Attitude toward Methods of Management, 140–145.

Gompers, Samuel. The Workers and Production, x–xii; viii, ix, 22, 50, 79.
Government, Federal, and Production. Grant Hamilton, 98–100.
Government, policy of, in distribution, 21.

Hamilton, Alice, 118.
Hamilton, Grant. Federal Government and Production, 98–100.
Hanson, William C., 103.
Harris, Louis I., 116.
Health: importance of, to production, 10; occupational hazards, price of, 105; production and, 32; sanitary equipment of plants, 106; universal insurance, 119.
Helfferich, Karl, 51.
Herriot, Edouard. Labor and Science, 50–55.
Hillman, Sidney, 30.
Hoover, Herbert, 6, 40, 53.
Hopkins, E. M., 139.
Hotchkiss, Willard E. The Bases of Industrial Stability, 19–25.
Howe, Frederick C., 89.
Howe, Harrison E. Research and Production, 127–132.
Hoxie, Robert F., 142.

Industrial: new conditions, 168; did war revolutionize conditions, 94; democracy, 4; financial incentive the industrial motive, 14; other incentives, 18; group influence, 21; leadership,

Index

Administration, Labor's Interest in. Major-General William Crozier, 153–158.
American Federation of Labor: piece-work payment, 158; scientific research, adoption of resolutions on, 132; fullest service by labor advocated, 57; necessity for shifting of labor, 16; shop committees, 9.
Appleton, W. A. A Labor Attitude toward Production—an English Point of View, 76–78.
Arbitration, 24–25.
Ardzrooni, Leon. The Philosophy of the Restriction of Output, 70–75.

Capital, 8.
Cheney, E. P., 46.
Collective bargaining: agreements, 48; is it incentive to production, 42; results of, in industry, 45; piece work, 46; production methods, 45; strikes, decrease in, 47.
Collective Bargaining and Its Effect on Production. William M. Leiserson, 40–49.
Competition: coöperation and, 3; for profit, 1; in service, 1.
Conciliation and mediation, 24.
Cooke, Morris Llewellyn. Editor's Preface, vii–ix; 50, 53.
Coöperation; basis of, 36; competition and, 3; effect of, 38; worker's fitness to manage, 37.
Cornick, R. L. Organizing the Shop for Production, 36–39.
Crooks, Sir William, 131.
Crozier, Major-General William, Labor's Interest in Administration, 153–158.

Davenport, H. J., 75.
Dennison, Henry S. Production and Profits, 159–162.
Drinker, C. K., 112.
Drinker, K. R., 112.
Drury, Horace B. Labor and Production, 79–88.

Edison, Thomas A., 76, 159.
Editor's Preface. Morris Llewellyn Cooke, vii–ix.
Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 163.
Employer, relations between employe and, 12.
Engineer, Every Worker an. Henry Wood Shelton, 1–6.
Erskine, Lillian. Women in Productive Industry, 93–97.
Extravagance, price of, 61.

Fisher, Irving, 28, 72.
Ford, Henry, 159.
Foreman, The—His Training and Education. Benjamin E. Mallary, 121–126.
Foremen's School: the instructor, 125; instruction methods, 125; organization, 123; course of study, 124.
Frayne, Hugh. Will Greater Production Cure Social and Industrial Unrest, 56–63; 110.
Freminville, Charles de. The Manager's Responsibility for Production, 163–169.
Frey, John P. Labor's Attitude toward Methods of Management, 140–145.

Gompers, Samuel. The Workers and Production, x–xii; viii, ix, 22, 50, 79.
Government, Federal, and Production. Grant Hamilton, 98–100.
Government, policy of, in distribution, 21.

Hamilton, Alice, 118.
Hamilton, Grant. Federal Government and Production, 98–100.
Hanson, William C., 103.
Harris, Louis I., 116.
Health: importance of, to production, 10; occupational hazards, price of, 105; production and, 32; sanitary equipment of plants, 106; universal insurance, 119.
Helfferich, Karl, 51.
Herriot, Edouard. Labor and Science, 50–55.
Hillman, Sidney, 30.
Hoover, Herbert, 6, 40, 53.
Hopkins, E. M., 139.
Hotchkiss, Willard E. The Bases of Industrial Stability, 19–25.
Howe, Frederick C., 89.
Howe, Harrison E. Research and Production, 127–132.
Hoxie, Robert F., 142.

Industrial: new conditions, 168; did war revolutionize conditions, 94; democracy, 4; financial incentive the industrial motive, 14; other incentives, 18; group influence, 21; leadership,

2; old time artisan, 167; organization, 14; pension systems, 109; psychology, 20; research, need for, 98; safety, 131.
Industrial Hygiene as a Factor in Production. Bernard J. Newman, 101–107.
Industrial Relations and Production. Matthew Woll, 7–13.
Industrial Stability, the Bases of. Willard E. Hotchkiss, 19–25.
Initiative, Production and the Preservation of. Helen Marot, 14–18.

Keynes, J. W., 34.
Kipling, Rudyard, v.
Kober, George M., 103.

Labor: management and, in production, 140; manual worker, 77; modern labor movement, 80; organized labor and scientific methods, 5; its new found strength, 152; importance of, in national stability, 57; policy needed to decrease turnover, 111; production systems, attitude toward, 141; production, main interest of, 83; psychological tests, 109; science and, 51; shall labor be ruled by force, 61; stock distribution, 156; what is labor, 76.
Labor's Attitude toward Methods of Management. John P. Frey, 140–145.
Labor Attitude toward Production, A—An English Point of View. W. A. Appleton, 76–78.
Labor's Interest in Administration. Major-General William Crozier, 153–158.
Labor and Production. Horace B. Drury, 79–88.
Labor and Science. Edouard Herriot, 50–55.
Lapp, John A., 119.
Le Chatelier, Henri, 165.
Lee, Joseph, 28.
Leiserson, William M. Collective Bargaining and Its Effect on Production, 40–49.
Lenine, Nicholai, 54.
Lynch, James M. Some Expectations of the Workers, 108–120.

Mallary, Benjamin E. The Foreman—His Training and Education, 121–126.
Management: Importance of labor in, 8, 9; management and labor in production, 140; organization, responsibility for, 1; production, problem of progressive, 134; progressive management, lines of action for, 137; specialized function, 133; sound managerial policies, necessity for, 122; manager's responsibility for production, 163; unprogressive managers, 136; workers' fitness to manage, 37.
Management, Labor's Attitude toward Methods of. John P. Frey, 140–145.
Management and Production. Fred J. Miller, xiii–xv.
Manager's Responsibility for Production. Charles de Freminville, 163–169.
Management, Selling Production to. Harlow S. Person, 133–139.
Marot, Helen. Production and the Preservation of Initiative, 14–18; 30.
Marx, Karl, 54.
Miller, Fred J. Management and Production, xiii–xv; ix, 50.
Mitchell, John, 120.
Mitchell, Thomas Warner. What is Production? 64–69.
Morley, Christopher, 139.
Mutual Agreement, 1, 4.

Napoleon, 35.
Newman, Bernard J. Industrial Hygiene as a Factor in Production, 101–107.

Occupational diseases, problems of, 118.
Okuma, Marquis, 52.
Oliver, Thomas, 103.
Organization: responsibility for, 1; technical, inefficient, 19.
Output: object of restricting, 70; limitation of supply, 72.
Output, The Philosophy of the Restriction of. Leon Ardzrooni, 70–75.

Parker, Carleton, 34.
Partnership, 31.
Person, Harlow S. Selling Production to the Management, 133–139.
Piece work: collective bargaining and, 46; attitude of American Federation of Labor toward, 158.
Pillsbury, Warren J., 113.
President's Industrial Conference, Report: informational service, 24; plan for settlement of disputes, 24.
Production: cause of, 64; collective bargaining, 40; control, 161; coöperative social advantages, 91; is decreased, fault of labor, 56; direct and indirect, 66; government functions in, 99; government participation in, 100; human nature and, 26; increasing yields, 130; industrial relations and, 7; labor and, 79; labor's attitude toward systems of, 141; labor problems of, 8; labor participation in management essential to, 41; methods, conception and application, 150; need for new system, 86; vital factor in reconstruction, 95; research and, 127; upon what does satisfactory production depend, 144; does overproduction cause unemployment, 77; shop control, 146; sanitary working conditions vital to, 103; difficulties of systems, 143; utilities, 65; lessons from war-time, 15; sickness a factor in decreased, 115; worker's attitude toward, 40; working conditions retarding, 101; what is production, 75.

Production, Collective Bargaining and Its Effect on. William Leiserson, 40–49.

Production, Coöperative. John H. Walker, 89–92.

Production, Federal Government and. Grant Hamilton, 98–100.

Production, Industrial Hygiene as a Factor in. Bernard J. Newman, 101–107.

Production, Industrial Relations and. Matthew Woll, 7–13.

Production, A Labor Attitude toward—An English Point of View. W. A. Appleton, 76–78.

Production, Labor and. Horace B. Drury, 79–88.

Production, Management and. Fred J. Miller, xiii–xv.

Production, Manager's Responsibility for. Charles de Freminville, 163–169.

Production, Organizing the Shop for. R. L. Cornick, 36–39.

Production and Profits. Henry S. Dennison, 159–162.

Production and the Preservation of Initiative. Helen Marot, 14–18.

Production, Will Greater, Cure Social and Industrial Unrest. Hugh Frayne, 56–63.

Production, Research and. Harrison E. Howe, 127–132.

Production, Selling to the Management. Harlow S. Person, 133–139.

Production, What Is? Thomas Warner Mitchell, 64–69.

Production, The Workers and. Samuel Gompers, x–xii.

Productive Industry, Women in. Lillian Erskine, 93–97.

Profit sharing, 112.

Profits, Production and. Henry S. Dennison, 159–162.

Prologue. Herman Schneider, v.

Publicity, in industry, 5.

Reed, Hudson W. Shop Control as a Manager Sees It, 146–152.

Research: defined, 127; in the humanities, 131; in illumination, 127; labor's interest in, 132;s hortens processes, 128; wastes utilized, 129.

Research and Production. Harrison E. Howe, 127–132.

Schneider, Herman. Prologue, v.

Science, Labor and. Edward Herriot, 50–55.

Scientific Management: methods of, 37; plus scientific evocation, 30.

Selling Production to the Management. Harlow S. Person, 133–139.

Shelton, Henry Wood. Every Worker an Engineer, 1–6.

Shop, Organizing the, for Production. R. L. Cornick, 36–39.

Shop control: absentee control, 162; committees, 9–10; discipline, 149; help, selection of, 147; temporary, 148; production, meaning of, 146; setting of standards, 150; transferring of workers, 148; quality of workmanship, 151.

Shop Control as a Manager Sees It. Hudson W. Reed, 146–152.

Smith, Adam, 52, 55.

Social insurance, 117.

Social unrest, 56.

Strikes: Kansas law, 22; responsibility of labor and capital for, 85.

Taylor, F. W., 55, 159, 160, 163–166.

Thompson, W. Gilman, 103.

Time study, and work analysis, 164.

Todd, Arthur J. Reaching the Mainsprings of the Wills of People, 26–35.

Trade Union: health records, 11; changing policy of, 16; theory of, 73; for progress, 141; production and, 144.

Trotsky, 54.

Vail, Theodore N., 159.

Valentine, Robert G., ix, 142.

Wage: what is living, 110; high, incentive to production, 11; low, cause of increased sickness, 115.

Walker, John H., Coöperative Production, 89–92.

Wallace, Graham, 33.
Ward, Lester F., 34.
Watts, 76.
Weitling, Wilhelm, 54.
Welfare work, and production, 35.
Weydemeyer, Joseph, 54.
Wills of People, Reaching the Mainsprings of. Arthur J. Todd, 26–35.
Wolf, Robert B., 34.
Woll, Matthew. Industrial Relations and Production, 7–13.
Women in Productive Industry. Lillian Erskine, 93–97.
Workers, Some Expectations of the. James M. Lynch, 108–120.
Workers, The, and Production. Samuel Gompers, x–xii.
Working conditions, economic value of good, 95.